

Ancient Greek Government

Test Quiz

Questions on this quiz are based on information from Ancient Greek Government.

1. Most of Ancient Greece was divided into these types of political regions:
 - a. Countries
 - b. Provinces
 - c. Tribes
 - d. City-states
 - e. Principalities

2. Where was the government of democracy first conceived of and introduced?
 - a. Rome
 - b. Athens
 - c. Sparta
 - d. Olympia
 - e. Corinth

3. How were most of the officials chosen in the Greek democracy?
 - a. They were voted on by the people
 - b. The king picked all the officials
 - c. The people who paid the most taxes became the officials
 - d. The highest ranking men in the army became the officials
 - e. They were chosen from all the citizens by lottery

4. In Athens, only the citizens could vote. Who qualified as a citizen?
 - a. Anyone who lived in Athens for over one year
 - b. Men who had completed their military training
 - c. Men who were born in the city of Athens
 - d. Anyone who professed their loyalty to Athens
 - e. All men and women over the age of 13

5. What type of government did the city-states of Greece have?
 - a. Monarchy
 - b. Oligarchy
 - c. Democracy
 - d. All of the above
 - e. None of the above

6. Which body of the Greek government included all the citizens who showed up to vote?

- a. The Assembly
- b. The Court
- c. The Senate
- d. The Councils
- e. The Tribunes

7. For public lawsuits in the Greek democracy, how many people sat on the jury?

- a. 7
- b. 12
- c. 51
- d. 201
- e. 501

8. When a city-state was ruled by a single person, like a king, what did they call the leader?

- a. Dictator
- b. Emperor
- c. Tsar
- d. Tyrant
- e. Monarch

9. What body of Greek democracy handled the day to day running of the government?

- a. The Ministers
- b. The Courts
- c. The Council
- d. The Assembly
- e. The Civil Service

10. What were the two largest city-states in Ancient Greece who fought many battles between each other?

- a. Corinth and Athens
- b. Athens and Sparta
- c. Sparta and Thebes
- d. Thebes and Olympia
- e. Olympia and Corinth