

Growing Up Greek

Name three games Ancient Greek children played.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What did you need to play a game like jacks?

What did Greeks believe Soothsayers could do?

When children turned three years old their life was celebrated at a spring festival called the _____?

A typical house was built around a _____, with doors to each room, and a few small windows in the outside walls.

By 480BC, coin-making techniques had greatly improved and the human face and body were shown. What was usually pictured on the coins?

Boys got an education at school and girls were taught at home. What did they scratch lessons on that could be scraped smooth and used again?

The Greeks were scientists and inventors. Some of their scientific discoveries have provided the foundations of modern science. Name two of these discoveries.

- 1.
- 2.